

WHAT COLOR IS NOTHING?

"What color is nothing?"
my daughter asked.
"Or is it like the rainbow perchance?"

Nothingness has no colors
but is inside them all.
It is what makes
the colors dance.

What's inside of matter
matters most of all,
shining from the other side illuminating each and all.

Flying through infinity
on the wings of a dove, Nothingness is nothing
but endless luminous love.

WHEN & WHERE IS NOTHING?

Nothing is here
and there
and everywhere.

Nothing
never
is not.
